In the cross-examination of the Hon. CALB POWERS by Tom CAMPBELL, Mr. POWERS delivered this hot one to the Cincinnati Courthouse lawyer.

"Mr. CAMPBELL, you persist in putting words into my mouth which I have not said. I want you in your interrogation to only quote me as saying what I say."

Of course, Judge CANTRELL is such a fair, upright man that he would not permit CAMPBELL to distort Mr. POWERS' answers to suit his own ends.

THERE is one and only one kind of a Jury that would suit the defense, and that is twelve Republicans so intensely partisan that they would be absolutely deaf, dumb and blind to any evidence unfavorable to the accused.—Paris Democrat.

Well, that wouldn't be any worse than the present unanimously Democratic Jury, each member of which is equally as honest as one of the challenged members who said: "Of course I'm prejudiced; I'm a Democrat!"

But the defense has neither asked for, nor does it desire, such a Jury as the Paris Editor outlines. It is but fair to presume that if Editor REMINGTON, being recognized as an extremely partisan Democrat, were being tried by a Jury composed entirely of his political enemies. All that CALB POWERS asks, and all that his friends ask for him, is a fair and impartial trial before a fair and impartial Court and Jury. Isn't he entitled to that much as a citizen of Kentucky?

Let us have a new deal and be done with the miserable farce that has been going on at Georgetown and Frankfort.

Let CANTRELL, the politician, give way to a Judge who will be guided by law rather than prejudice, and let the Jury be made up of six honest Democrats and six honest Republicans—and the people will be satisfied with the verdict.

Let us have a new deal and be done with the miserable farce that has been going on at Georgetown and Frankfort.

Let CANTRELL, the politician, give way to a Judge who will be guided by law rather than prejudice, and let the Jury be made up of six honest Democrats and six honest Republicans—and the people will be satisfied with the verdict.

If it should turn out that YOUTSER fired the shot that killed Senator GIBBS, he should be hung. But JIM HOWARD has been "convicted" already for $5,000 of doing the shooting.

"PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is not the only man in the country who regards the White House as about his size," is the sage remark of a sagebrush exchange. But, then, Teddy will come nearer filling it than most of the other fellows.

MRS. WILLIAM F. SCHOLLER, Associate Editor and Business Manager of The Advance-Kentuckian of Morehead, is a candidate for Enrolling Clerk of the Lower House of the Legislature. Mrs. SCHOLLER is a lady of the highest educational qualifications, embodied with that superior business capacity which most eminently fits her for the position. Her selection will secure a competent official, besides being an acknowledgment of the worth of true womanhood.

WERE IN MAYSVILLE TOO.

The local Goebelites who are excited because of the President's attention to Booker Washington might bear in mind the Alabama educator was a very different sort of Negro from Brother Hatt and Brother Christian, whom they have from time to time taken to their bosom as men and brethren what times they were trying to steal elections from the decent people of Louisville.

Riley Walker, who was remanded to jail at Flemingsburg some time ago in default of the payment of a judgment of $1,000 against him in favor of Mrs. John McDrew for alleged slander, was released Saturday after being confined ten days. His release was secured through his taking the insolvency oath.

Harry N. Pillsbury, who in 1895 won the world's chess championship at the international meet in Hastings, England, and for many years his mathematical powers and ability while blindfolded to remember the position of each of the 48 pieces on a chess board has excited the wonder of psychologists.

BRAIN-FOOD NONSENSE.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have discredited the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscle, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutritive is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aid digestion, stimulate the liver to healthy action, purify the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable medicine at J. Jas. Wood & Son's, 112 Green's Special Attention.

Nerve Slavery

It is present-day conditions—beating burdens of work upon the nervous system that tells the story—premature breaking up of health.

It tells you so many men and women, who so far as age is concerned, should be in the prime of health, find themselves letting go of the strength, the power, the vitality they once possessed. It is because that great motor power of the body, nerve force, is impaired. Neither will the heart, the brain, the liver, the kidneys, the stomach act right without their proper nerve force supply. Let any organ be lacking in this essential and troubles begin—some of them are:

Throbbing, pulsating heart. Sleepless nights. Sudden startings. Headaches. Debility to work or think. Exhaustion on exertion. Indigestion. Food leaves the stomach. Easily excited, nervous, irritable. Strength fails. Loss of flesh and muscular power. Settled melancholia.

IN HIS OWN BEHALF

Rr. Adm. Shiley is Expected to Take the Witness Stand Thursday Afternoon.

HE MAY OCCUPY TWO OR THREE DAYS.

One Witness, Mr. Sylvester Scovel, if He Can Be Found, Will Be Called in Rebuttal.

Eight Persons Testified Wednesday and There Are Only Three More Names on the List Besides the Admiral Himself.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Adm. Shiley is expected to take the witness stand in the naval court of inquiry, which is investigating his conduct in the Spanish war, some time during the day Thursday. The bank, knowing Joe Jones to be a responsible lumberman, working for the firm of McCormick, Lyons & Co., this place, at once sent the money by express.

It is not yet possible to say whether any witnesses will be called in rebuttal by the court, but it seems probable that the incident of the Spanish war will be heard in support of his side of the controversy. It is now considered probable that he will be on the stand for two or three days. Wednesday, and there are only three more names on the list preceding the name of the admiral himself. ## HELD THEM AT BAY.

A Plucky Messenger, With a Shotgun, Prevented the Robbery of an Express Car.

FINALLY DROVE OFF THE TWO ROBBERS.

Car Door Was Blown Off With Dynamite, But the Bandits Were Not Allowed to Enter.

They Next Robbed the Mail Car of a Registered Pouch and Made Their Escape—Passengers Were Not Molested.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 24.—The north-bound overland express train on the Northern Pacific was held up by two masked men 15 miles south of Eugene at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. The robbers blew open the express car with dynamite, but were driven off by the express messenger.

The only booty secured was one registered mail pouch. Two men boarded the train at Cottage Grove, and a short distance this side, near Saguana, put off the fireman and his helper, uncoupled the express car, and made the engineer go ahead a short distance. Then the robbers tried to blow open the door of the express car, which they did with dynamite, tearing the door to pieces and badly damaging the car.

Express Messenger C. R. Charles was in the car and had made up his mind to stay there. The robbers ordered the messenger to get out of the car and he determinedly refused to come, and held a position where he could easily bring down any person who should enter through the opening on the side made by the dynamite.

"Come out and we will blow you and the car all to h—l," commanded the robbers.

Lighted stick of dynamite thrown. Then the desperadoes compelled the engineer to throw into the car a stick of dynamite with a lighted fuse. The messenger grabbed it, put out the fire in the fuse and threw out the stick.

They next attempted to enter the car by compelling the engineer, who was in the hands of the robbers, to crawl in through the door, the robbers hoping to gain admittance by using him as a protector, but Charles used his shotgun to good advantage and kept up a good fire directly over the engineer's head, knowing well the robbers would attempt to follow him into the car.

Finally the robbers turned their attention to getting away with what little they could from the mail car. They obtained the registered mail, and then the messenger, taking the engineer on board the engine, which they cut loose from the train and ran to within half a mile of Eugene, where they were met and started toward the Willamette river in a northerly direction. The passengers were not molested.

They Are Believed to Be the Gang Who Robbed the Chicago Post Office Sunday Night.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—The police received information Wednesday night of the arrest of three men at Corning, N. Y., who are believed to be the gang who robbed the Chicago post office. A stolen mail bag, containing postage stamps of large denomination, was in their possession. There was a large quantity of postage due stamps in the stolen bag.

Dispatches from Corning state that the gang of three desperate-looking men were caught in the New York Central yards Wednesday afternoon by the company's detective. The men put up a desperate fight before they were overcome.

TORPEDO BOAT THORNTON.

On Her Official Speed Trial the Vessel Failed to Develop the Necessary Speed.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 24.—The torpedo boat Thornton, built for the Wm. R. Commonwealth Made a Motion For the Arrest of J. B. Matthews. Who Left Georgetown.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 24.—The trial of Caleb Powers was resumed promptly at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. It has been understood by counsel for the commonwealth that one of the jurors trying the case was a schoolmate of the accused, and was in the same class with him for three years at Kentucky university.

The commonwealth has made a motion for the arrest of J. B. Matthews, formerly assistant secretary of state to Powers. Matthews was summoned as a witness for the state. He was the man who broke into Powers' office with a hatchet after Gobel was shot. When Powers was on the stand Monday he was asked if he did not tell J. B. Matthews that he gave Henry Yontey a key to his office on two occasions during the month of January. Powers replied that he positively did not make any such statement.

The questions asked Powers were written out on a white slip of paper and supposed to have been given to the state by Matthews shortly after the assassination of Gobel. It is claimed that when Matthews found out that he would be asked this question when he put upon the stand he left Georgetown.

Searching For Matthews. It is believed that Matthews is either headed for Indiana or the mountains, and men employed by the commonwealth are now searching for him.

John Ricketts testified that he never saw Henry Yontey say "Tally Ho, Dick" Combs on the breast on Monday, January 29, and say, "Here is the man who will kill Gobel within 24 hours."

Representative W. H. Lilly, of Leslie county, denied emphatically that he ever made the statement that if the legislature passed Henry Berry, of Fayette county, the democratic members would be killed. Jos Davis said he never heard John B. Powers tell Frank May, of the First Presbyterian church in Knox county that Gobe was to be killed.

N. L. McDaniel testified that after Gobel was shot J. B. Matthews, of Frankfort, said "Let's get out guns and kill Taylor and every white republican on the square." James C. Wharton, of Louisville, said Wharton Golden told him that Caleb Powers was an innocent man and had not conspired to kill William Gobel or any other democrat.

Further resolutions defined the attitude of the organization of political functions. A resolution calling upon congress to change the form of government of the District of Columbia, and the form of the "Woman's Relief union, auxiliary to the Union Veterans' union, was in session all day. The president stepped from his car, he was greeted by Mayor John P. Stedley and President Hadley, of Yale, who welcomed him and escorted him to a carriage. Headed by a band, he proceeded on to the campus. The party proceeded directly to Dwight hall, where President Roosevelt donned the academic robes, preparatory to taking part in the central commemorative function at the Hyperion.

The reception was held in the great dining hall, or commons, owned by the university corporation. The building is one of the new bicentennial structures.

Close at hand were secret service officers, ushers and policemen and in the charge of the ceremony.

The purpose was to admit only those wearing badges. These numbered several thousand, and a great number of the national advertised public also managed to gain entrance.

The President Well Guarded.

Particularly noticeable was the extreme caution, not only of the officers, but of those having the honor in charge, for the adequate protection of the president.

The most unique and original feature of the reception was the fact that there was no handshaking. The suggestion to eliminate this old-time custom originated with President and Mrs. Hadley, and was readily adopted by the president after consultation with Secretary Cortelyou.

Light refreshments were served at the side hall opposite the official party.
